

Press Release (1/23/23)

The Wilmington Housing Authority (WHA) Kicks Off Hillcrest Redevelopment Process with Resident and Stakeholder's meetings

WHA began a series of meetings this afternoon at the Hillcrest Housing Complex. The purpose being the introduction of its development partners Related Urban and TedCo. The first of multiple meetings started with the residents of Hillcrest. Transparency and continued communication as the planning process moves forward was the theme of this initial meeting. Additional discussions with the business, healthcare and non-profit agencies are planned for later this week.